

JOB SPECIFICATION

On-camp volunteer for newly arrived Ukrainian children

About the Role

The primary role of an on-camp volunteer is to help with the integration and experience of newly arrived Ukrainian children that are attending Kings Camps.

Kings Camps enables children to be active, have fun and learn together, therefore we require volunteers to be physically active, prepared to join in activity sessions, and be able to converse in English and Ukraine to a reasonable level.

Volunteers are required to:

1. Attend their local Kings Camp on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for at least 2 consecutive weeks
2. Be the point person for children, parents and staff for language translation assistance
3. Assist the Kings Camps team with communications with Ukrainian children
4. Assist the Kings Camps team with any child behaviour issues arising with Ukrainian children
5. Join in with activity sessions
6. Fulfil our policies and procedures that ensure the safety and welfare of children

We have partnered with Mail Force (the charity of The Daily Mail, a UK newspaper that's raised funds to enable children from Ukraine attend Kings Camps) to provide a payment of £100 per week per volunteer to cover reasonable expenses incurred during the course of this role.

Conditions of Work

- Monday, Wednesday and Friday, within 8am-6pm
- Report directly to The Kings Camps Site Manager
- Part of the Kings Camps team

Personal Specification

- Physically active
- Reasonable level of written and verbal communication in English and Ukraine
- Experience of working with children
- Happy working as part of a team
- Understanding of safeguarding
- Supportive of our mission and values

About Us

Established in 1991, Kings Active Foundation is a UK registered charity with a vision of a world where children love being active, and a mission to get children active, having fun and learning together.

We're experts in using active games, sport and fun to connect with children via our activity programmes and we equip, enable and inspire others to deliver activity programmes.

We are a small team doing big things. We have a passion for our work and a desire to get more children active and improving their physical and mental wellbeing.

We're committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. Safer recruitment is central to the way we work and all staff and volunteers are expected to share our commitment to safeguarding, always creating an environment where young people feel safe and can thrive.