Expectations & Behaviour	Important: It is vital that you remember you are representing Kings Camps at all times, 24-hours a day. The manager is responsible for the behaviour of the staff both on and off the camp. Noise levels must be appropriate and respectful at all times, particularly in or near sleeping areas. Language must be appropriate for the group you are with particularly when children are present but lewd or crude language or comments will not be acceptable at any time. Staff must communicate with each other respectfully at all times. It is important due to the amount of time you will spend with colleagues that you try hard to resolve relational problems quickly and ask the Manager, Regional Manager or head office to be involved if you cannot find resolution. You may not enter sleeping quarters of a member of the opposite sex.
